Rest in peace Grandma, she thought the sun rose and set in me and my sister and we thought the same of her. You have to suffer no more. Rest easy and know your love affected everyone who ever met you, for that we are all so grateful xoxo

I can't believe she's gone! Hazel has always been like a lighthouse on the shore... that warm, glowing light that comforts, brings you safely home, and guides you with the knowledge that "everything will be alright". A lovely woman, a friend and a fabulous mother... the reason my dearest friend is the beautiful person she is!!!! I share your sorrow for my missed opportunities to be in her presence... and comforted to know... one day she will be there, once again, the light that welcomes us all to the next phase of eternity... Love to all of Hazel's family and friends ... and ... loads of hugs to her beautiful daughter (Susan), the testament to the legacy of a great mother! I love you, big sister!!!

The love and support of a mother can never be replaced, but I pray for grace for you to find serenity, hope, acceptance and strength in the love of family and the warm embrace of friends.

So sorry for your loss Aunt Susan. I could not imagine what it is like to loose your momma. Your girls are going to miss their grandmother terribly, but just keep remembering how much she loves them and she will always be in their hearts.
