Chris moved here with my brother Sonny, who we lost this past August. How ironic they both left us within less than a year apart! Chris has been cutting my hair since, which is nearly thirty years now! He has been like family to me ever since. I will certainly miss him dearly, and who the heck is gonna cut my hair now? There will be no suitable substitute for him! I am so glad to see this obituary, I was so afraid he would slip off the face of the earth and that would be the end of it. My grieving process can begin now. My condolences to his mother and sister, and I would love for one of them to get in touch, if at all possible. Thanks to all who have paid tribute to his life! Love you Chris and miss you!

What a dear and never forgotten friend. Last thing he said to me was, "Don't forget me". He was an amazing hair stylist but I would have gone to him even if he weren't so amazing. He adored my daughter and would joke with her. Even though he didn't do her hair, he formed a bond with her. Just a beautiful person... Will be missed dearly.

I met Christopher thru a friend who recommended him as a good hairdresser. Even though he no longer did my hair we remained good friends for many years. Hard to believe he is gone. R.I.P. my friend. I will miss our lunch chats.

Christopher, my dear, funny, caring, loving friend I will miss your smile, your sense of humor, our Olive Garden lunches (I really wish I got you that Eggplant Parm you were craving in the hospital) and our movie get togethers. I know there is a plan for all of us, but I don't understand this one, you still had a lot of living to do, you took your illness in stride and did what they told you too....? I will miss you my FRIEND. Janet Scolari, Clearwater

While looking for a new hairdresser about 8 years ago, I found Chris! It turned out that we were both from the same small town, and it was an instant connection between two "Raggies" from Winsted, CT. He quickly became more than a hairdresser, he became my friend!! His smile would light up a room and our conversations were always fun!! There are so many great stories of Chris that I wish I could share and I'm sure everyone has the same kind of memories of him. I wasn't ready for him to go, but I hope he is at peace now!! I love you and miss you Chris.Teresa

My condolences to the family, I just found out today when I stopped in at the Salon...I am so shocked. I am so sorry to his family and for all those who loved Christopher.....which is everybody that who ever has met him! Whats not to love, he may only have been my hairdresser for years but he was more than that to me...a friend, a therapist, and someone who always cheered me up, gave me compliments and great advice. So kind hearted, I surely am going to miss him. RIP my friend, until we meet again
