We will surely miss Sharon! She was the best friend and neighbor anyone could ask for- always smiling, thoughtful, concerned, helpful. Her sunny disposition always brightened our day. It will seem so strange not to have her next door anymore. We loved her like a little sister. Sharon always knew someone wherever we went. She didn't know a stranger. She would talk to anybody. I imagine by now she is best friends with Peter, James and John, and Moses! Donna, our hearts go out to you. You are in our prayers. Please call us if we can do anything to help you out, or if you just want to talk. Love, and hugs, and prayers, Sally and Mike
