Tara Ann King - Trombley

JAN 27, 1969 - OCT 4, 2011

Tara King-Trombley Tara passed away October 4, 2011 peacefully after a prolonged illness at the age of forty two. She loved teaching her students at Anchor Academy and Dunedin Academy before becoming ill. She attended Villa Victoria Academy in Trenton, NJ, with the Class of 1987 with whom she re-established loving contact over the past several years. She received degrees from St Petersburg College and University of South Florida. Tara was very gifted as an artist and a writer. On a single page, she had the ability to bring one to tears or to doubled-over laughter. She could always produce a touching gift with a pencil and a sketch pad. These talents will be missed. What will be missed even more by everyone is her sweetness and loving nature. She is predeceased by her little brother Jimmy, who has been watching over us for thirty five years, and her Nana, whom she loved dearly. She is survived by her very loving husband, Kevin; her children, Damien King-Acevedo, Xavier King-Acevedo, Myles King-Acevedo, Toni King-Acevedo, and Maya King -Acevedo; her parents, James and Irene King; her brother Jeff King and his wife Amy Bossler and numerous Aunts, Uncles, and Cousins from all over the country. She was very close to Our Lord and she loved attending Mass at various Roman Catholic Churches in the Diocese. She was a member of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish in Dunedin. Visitation will be at Moss Feaster, Dunedin on Sunday, October 9, between the hours of 6:00 and 8:00 P.M., followed by a Funeral Mass at Our Lady of Lourdes at 12:00 Noon on Monday October, 10. In lieu of flowers, donations are requested to be sent to Hospice of Pinellas County or The
