Charles G. Schult

NOV 26, 1929 - FEB 5, 2011

Charles George "Chuck" Schult, a former Marine, was in the 3rd Wave to arrive at Iwo Jima and a fighter pilot, flying F4U Corsair aircraft in the Korean War. After being injured when his plane was hit he was in Bethesda Naval Hospital for six months and then he was given the duty of escorting the Marine war casualties to their various home towns. Chuck worked, in the late 1960's, as a Sheriff's detective in Memphis, Tenn. where he was part of the initial investigation of the 1968 murder of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and he and his detective partner flew to Heathrow Airport in England to retrieve James Earl Ray (the person who killed King) and returned Ray to the States. He retired from a steel company after 42 years and served on the fire district commission since the late 1990's. He is survived by wife Louise (Breault) and son's Charles Jr., Richard (Diane), and Daniel (Susan); Grandchildren Lisa and Laurie, Richard Jr., Michael, Marcus, and Ashley; Stepdaughter Denise (Michael); Grandchildren Emilie, Hilary, triplets Jesi, Jason, and Jake. Rain of Life Deep rain, cool breeze ground soft, feel peace many thoughts, cloak swoops as in feeling the word of far away, make this life good or bad, take the walk inside and out, feel the air the breath of Him, watch it clear too soon to start again Love, Jake We Love You Pepere "Harder than thunder can bump a stump" Jesi, Jason, Jake, and Emilie Arrangements under the direction of Moss Feaster Funeral Home and Cremation Services, Dunedin, FL.

It has now been a little over 4 months since my Chuck has gone and it still feels unreal. On May 12th, 2011, Chuck was buried at Arlington National Cemetary and what a beautiful service it was. I'll love him and miss him for the rest of my life...he will always be my "Boo" Louise Chuck was a welcomed addition, during his term of office as Director with the Ridgemoor Master Homeowners Association board. His decision to serve as an elected official with the East Lake Fire Commission continued to benefit our community.
