I was shocked and saddened to learn of Kathy's death today as I searched for her on Facebook-- remembering her birthday was last week. She was such a good friend and helper in our college and sorority days. We only touched base from time to time since, and now I am so sorry about that. Reading her guestbook entries reminded me of her great abilities, friendships and kindnesses. My sympathies to her family. . .

I just today learned of Kathy's death and was deeply saddened. I knew she had been ill but was not prepared for her loss. Unfortunately she was still assisting me, had been over the last 3 yrs! She would say "we need to get this done!" Each time we met, she spoke fondly of Janna & Jeff. We would laugh as we discussed our grown children! I can't articulate the unique style that was only Kathy and unlike any I have or probably will ever see again. Yes, it saddens me that she cannot walk with me; as, I finally end a chapter. However more than that, her passing made me cry for who she was, both personally and professionally. I feel blessed to have known her and believe that she is looking down and carrying on in her own indomitable way as she watches over her children, sister and each person who touched her life. How sad that God took her early but how glad we must be for what she left behind. Kathy definitely made a difference in my life and will live on in my heart and memories. That we all should be so fortunate to leave a legacy like that. Thank YOU, Kathy.

I referred many woman to Katherine over my 25 years in practice in Seminole as a psychotherapist. She was an invaluable resource to me and to our community. Once the woman had an appointment with her, I knew that woman was in the hands of an attorney who would represent her in the very best legal manner and also with understanding and compassion. Her loss as an attorney is great, but her loss as a role-model for women,is greater.I hope the family realizes how many lives she touched and how many lives she changed just by being who she was.Marilyn Kisiel LCSW, BCD

In later years she helped me professionally and wouldn't take a dime for it. My heart is heavy with her loss so early in life. I remember playing casual tennis with Kathy a couple times a week when we went to Dunedin High School in the early 60's. Kathy's shy smile was infectious and she had a natural competitive tennis spirit. I remember her as a wonderful young girl and she must have been loved mother and friend to many who knew her later in life. Although it has been 45 years since I picked her up at her house in my Model A Ford to go play tennis at the Virginia Street courts, it seems like yesterday and I will truly miss her.

This is so hard to believe. We were just talking about Kathy on New Years Day. We were talking about our old neighborhood on Milwaukee Avenue. Dear Janna, Jeff, Del, and Karen: The loss of a mother and sister is irreplaceable. You have my deepest sympathies. Kathy was a very highly-skilled and well-respected attorney in the Tampa Bay area. In her earlier years, she was a competitive tennis player, so good in fact that I think she was able to beat Peter, who was pretty good himself! Although her passing was untimely, she will be remembered as an accomplished person, who led a very productive life, and helped her clients through some of the most difficult times in their lives. - Tom Roman

It is always sad when a long time friend leaves us. Classmates since 3rd grade, Kathy was amazingly bright and always diligent whether we were making soap in Irene Dunn's 4th grade class, or struggling with Bill Allen's band in Jr. High School. I wonder how many remember that she wrote the words to our class of '65 song? I am reminded of the line from Edna St. Vincent Millay: "My candle burns at both ends; It will not last the night; But ah, my foes, and oh, my friends It gives a lovely light!" My sympathies to all Kathy leaves behind.
