My heart goes out to the whole Generalli family. Carole always lit up the room when she was around and such a joyful and positive woman. She will be dearly missed. She touched all of us with just being the beautiful woman that she was. Dangerous, I can't even imagine your pain, and you will be in my thoughts for healing through all the happy memories you shared. Embrace your family and let them help you through this time. I will truly miss her. Love and peace to each and everyone of you during this time. Rebecca and Amanda
