Tom, Tim and Jay,[Not sure if my first attempt went through]I just returned to home today [Saturday] and caught up on days-old newspapers and read of Maida's passing. I'm sorry I missed her memorial service at Our Lady of Lourdes in Dunedin.My deepest prayers go out to Maida and her family.Such a warm, generous, gracious person! Clearly, the Kelly clan had a wonderful matriarch who demanded and set such high standards for a wonderful family.I have been way out of touch with the Kellys but we attended some of the earliest Super Bowl partys -- complete with great food, cheering and laughter. -- back in the 70s when the NFL had more sense to schedule games on Sunday AFTERNOONS!Anyhow, I just wanted to express my sorrow in Maida's passing and pray she is now rejoined with loved ones in heaven.May she rest in warm gentle peace.Jim Martin, retired Broadcast Producer-Engineer/ Teacher living in Highland Lakes, Palm Harbor

The Cyr family sends their love to the Kelly family and know that we are sending you love and strength to surround you during this loss. Honey was quite an amazing woman and each of us have great memories of our time with her and the beautiful energy that she had and the love she gave to everyone she met. What an amazing legacy she has left behind in her beautiful children, grandchildren and great grandchildren that make up her amazing family, you will continue to see her smile when you look at each other and listen to the laughter when the family is together.Vicki, Bob, Meagan, Amber, Greg and Katherine Cyr.
