We met Jack at North Dunedin and got to know him better in our Sunday school class. While he lived at the assisted living facility, he would sometimes still drive over to North Dunedin for services. One Sunday, he came to our house after church for lunch and we had a wonderful visit with him. We would like you to know how much we enjoyed our short relationship with him. For my husband, Bill and I, he was a special friend. Our condolences to all of you, Darlene and Bill Battoe
