Cousin Rebecca sent me a solar chime. It is small and the sound is sweet and delicate. It reminds me of my sister. When I hear it, I say, 'Hi Priss' because it's like she's talking to me. She would say that it is good feng shui.

Meeting Prissy about 1956 when she was in first grade and my sister enrolled at Most Holy Rosary school on 2nd street in New York, she came up to us and just said, Hi my name is Priscilla what's yours? She lived on 2nd street and 2nd avenue and us on 2nd street and 1st avenue right across from the school. She was my sisters friend first and being the youngest I tagged along and she became my BEST friend who I thought of as my big sister who looked after me and taught me many things that I never forgot and kept to this day and forever. She stood up with me when I got married, is Godmother to my daughter and always in my heart. God only let us have her for a short while and when she gave all her love He wanted her to come home ! I Love you Prissy, always have always will
