My Nani Poem (Gwen and Elijah)I loved my Nani very much but she has gone awayShe was the very best Nani and I wanted her to stay I know I can think of her with her loving little smiles And all the gifts she gave to me as there were piles and pilesI will remember Nani watching over me while having lots of funShe would offer her advice and a memory of us had simply just begunI know I can think of her when lying in my bedBecause of all the great things that my Nani shared and saidI know I'm small and not too tall but I tell I do careThat Nani left too soon for me and it doesn't seem too fairI know I can think of her and this is what I will sayYou were the very best Nani in every single way
