Pat Roberts lit a candle in honor of Eva.

Lucile and I sat side by side at Allstate for over 20 years until the company transferred me to North Carolina in 1990. We've stayed in touch all these years and I was able to visit with her for a short while when I was in Florida in November last year. She has been in my prayers and I know what pain she was in. I feel relieved she is at peace and there won't be any more tears. She has been a great friend through the years and will be missed by all. Love you Lucille.
