The Sands of Time

When born you are given a measure of sand, how much or how little no one knows. As long as the sand runs, your clock of life runs, use it wisely, put no faith in tomorrow, do what you have to do today. For once the sand is gone; your clock of life is stilled, and no power on earth can restart the hand of time.

Dave was predeceased by a son Sean Serpa, his parents, Harold and Olga Gange, a brother and sister-in-law, Ron and Edith Gange and niece Joelle Gange. He is survived by his beloved family, his wife, Mary Lou, sons, Donald , Daniel and David Gange and Bruce Serpa; daughter Tracey Ireland; brother, Roger Gange and his wife Sue; sister, Mary Kakkuri and her husband Dan and family; special nephews, Mack Gange and David Michael Gange and his wife Susan, special nieces, Leah Kelter, Stacy Schettino and her husband, Tony and daughters Allie and Celeste; grandchildren, Stewart Ireland IV, Hunter Ireland, Alexis Ireland, Alexandra Serpa, Hayley Serpa, Justen Gange, Joey Gange, Dennis Gange and Breanna Gange; great-granddaughter, Aubree Lynn Ireland.

A graveside service with military honors will be held at 2:15 PM, Tuesday, June 16,

PA, i don't know were to start with you and how amazing you are and how you treated me. i miss you so much and i love you and, it dosen't feel like your gone because i know you will always be here with me, even tho not in person but in my heart. I miss playing kitchen with you and i would ask you what you wanted and you would say chicken and i would say "i'm sorry were all out of chicken" you would laugh. And then after we played kitchen i would give you a hair cut and you would go "ouch" to scare me and you would say i'm just kidding. there's just so much to say i could spend hours talking about you and how great you are i miss you so much. when i came to see you i was so sad to see you gone but, when i was there it just felt like you were on vacation because i know you are still here and you will always be. I LOVE YOU SO MUCH GRANDPA!!Alexis IrelandUtica,Michigan

To Dave's Family: We met Dave through his mother, Olga. Olga was a companion to our Uncle, Bill Uloz who resided at Imperial Cove in Clearwater Florida. For many years my mom maintained a condo at Imperial Cove in which she resided during the winter months. We would vacation in Clearwater every year and very much enjoyed our poolside conversations that we would have with Dave. He truly had a larger than life personality. Our deepest condolences go out to his wife, family and friends.Chris & Mitzi RicchiutoLyndhurst, Ohio

David we will miss you. You were always there at such pivotal moments in our lives that it is hard to imagine that it wasn't some kind of divine influence. I will always remember the way you lit up the room with your enthusiastic and hilarious stories and how you did your best to be kind and helpful. You were there for moral support when we lost our Mom, you entertained little babies at big events, you parked cars during a deluge at my reception and most recently you helped us celebrate the graduation of our girls on the 27th. Thank you for being there for one last great conversation, and a big hug and kiss good bye. Love you Dave.
