Memories from his sister: Eric NEVER got lost; even when he was little he always knew where we were! Eric loved Great Danes and horses. If you wanted to buy a great used car get your hands on one Eric was finished with! He would get a car and take all the seats out, have them reupholstered, put in new carpet and a great stereo. He had amazing patience and was slow to anger. He could build and paint models with the tiniest of pieces. Eric had a good sense of humor - I know as he often made me the focus when we were growing up. Eric loved his daughter and being a Dad. He had a gentle nature and a loving heart. He was one of the two best brothers ever!

When I see the movie Cocoon I always think of Eric in the radar scene. And horseback riding oh so many years ago. Most recent was a driving tour of the base in Melbourne when we went to the commissary. He was so proud of the work he was doing there. We had a great time tubing last summer too. He never complained when I showed up every summer for more than just a few days. Stormy and Eric had a bond from way back and I'm so glad they had the past three years together. His loss is so tragic. We will all miss him dearly. Love you, Jeannie
