Katherine Ference Hudson

MAY 10, 1962 - AUG 27, 2015

Katherine Ference Hudson, 53, of Palm Harbor passed on the evening of Thursday, August 27.

Born in Rhode Island, she lived all over the world and settled in Pinellas County with her husband James and raised her two sons, Ian and Colin. She was a writer and a painter. She loved the arts and had a quick wit and an endless capacity for love and compassion.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Richard and Judy Ference, and her husband James C. She is survived by her sons, Ian and Colin; her siblings Traci, Ricky, and Chris; her aunt Connie, uncle Jake and his wife Janet, and innumerable friends.

There will be a graveside gathering at Calvary Catholic Cemetery [CONFIRMING TIME WITH CEMETERY, will advise when it's confirmed].

The family asks that in lieu of flowers, a donation in Kathy's name be made to the Wounded Warrior Project or your local humane society

I just stumbled over this while I was clicking on the LCHS site. I'm so sorry I didn't know she had passed. My heart goes out to her boys and to everyone who knew her. She, indeed, was an amazing soul. I'll never forget the first time I met her (in the dorms at LCHS). Perhaps, my memory is a little skewed, but she was like a god on campus. I was a new sophomore, and she was the mighty drama queen (in the real sense- a very good thing), not the drama queens of today. I was too intimidated to even talk to her. I went to see her in a play (Joan of Arc) and was amazed by her talent and insight. Throughout the year I was there, I cried over her poetry and stories, and I never let her know how much I appreciated her. I know she didn't know it, she inspired me greatly through the years to get up on stage, tell it like it is, and be a real human being. RIP, Katherine

Kathy was like a little sister to me. Her dad Richard and his wife Mary took me in he was my chief in the Navy. That family were my guardian angels and I owe them my life. I remember the birthday when I bought Kathy her first pair of jeans she was soooooo happy she broke out into a happy dance I have a pic somewhere. Kathy you are so loved by so many people and I'm sure, that love, made your journey smoother. You will always have my heart.
