Sadly, I just heard of Ann's passing. She was my dental hygienist for a period of time following gum surgery. I was taken by her warm and caring personality, her professionalism and her truly excellent way she took care of my teeth. She spoke of her family each time I saw her and her pride in each and every one of you was constant. My condolences to the family. Lois Corwin

Annie has and will always have a special place in my heart. We became friends early in high school. She was the type of friend that was warm and comfortable. We have so many special memories. She was my maid of honor in my wedding, and I was hers, so that should tell you how close we were. Of course, we both moved out of Geneva so we didn't see each other as much as we would have liked. But whenever we talked it was always a reconnection with each other. I will never forget the love I have for this beautiful girl and her lovely family. I have been having a real hard time with this loss and can't even imagine how hard this is on her loving family. The loss of this special friend will never get easier, we just learn how to cope with this sadness. My love, thoughts, and prayers go out to this wonderful family. I am a better person for knowing and loving my Annie.

I volunteered with Ann at St. Vincent de Paul. During board meetings I would make faces at her and she did her best not to laugh and disrupt the meeting. She was a joy to work with and I have missed her so much this past year. It will not be the same without her. Her family was precious to her so always remember that. Phyllis Davis

There are no words that can accurately describe feelings at this time. My good friend is now at home with her Lord. I pray that the family is comforted by our Heavenly Father who's peace passes all understanding. I know that all the wonderful memories of family times, good times and the love you share will be dear to your hearts. Ann was a very special person and anyone who ever had any contact with her has been touched with a very special presence. I am sure that God welcomed her with "well done good and faithful servant."
