Scott always brought laughter and a smile wherever he went. The first time I met him, Denise was the newly installed director at St. Jerome's and he was facilitating a music presentation. He encouraged us as teachers to laugh, have fun and make music a part of our daily routine. The music that he loved so much was a gift that he gave to many children. Thank you Scott for sharing your gifts! Laura Woodard

My thoughts, prayers and sympathy go out to the Roach Family at the passing of Scott. He was a blessing to you and to all who knew him. He truly lived a good life and now enjoys, with the Lord, the gift of eternity he so richly deserves. May Scott rest now in God's peace and may God who watches over the family, give you comfort and courage in this time of sorrow. I will shed tears that he is gone, but I shall also smile because he lived. May your faith in God and His promise of eternal life, ease the sorrow you feel, and leave only warm and loving memories of Scott.

Thinking of Scott with fond memories. So sorry to hear of his passing. Scott was a year older than I was when we went to Immaculate but I remember how talented he was. I'll be praying for him and his entire family.

Scott's hearty laugh, genuine interest in each person he met, effusive and affirming personality, steadfast faith, joyful heart...memories of a life very well lived. Each of us felt attended to, appreciated and valued just for being who we were; that was Scott's demeanor, and it never changed. The world is a better place for having had Scott's presence in it...for all its perfection, even heaven is a more beautiful place now that Scott is celebrating and singing with the angels and the saints!

Today I know the ripples of Scott's love and touch on all who knew him will be felt for much longer than his years. He changed enumerable lives and hearts. He uplifted all who knew him and heard his smile. A true forever friend! Right now with tears and warmth I think back to him telling me... "why don't you answer the phone when i call." I told him many times... "I am saving your glorious voice mails." He would joke and laugh his big hearty laugh... telling me what are you doing with these vm's. like a stalker? You could feel the love no matter how many miles in between. Now today as this was a running joke and giggle fest... I am so grateful to have his messages archived on my PC from many precious moments of our lives. His holiday and birthday and special singing messages will never leave my remembrance, but getting to hear him whenever I want to is a gift. His name, love and friendship, is etched on my heart... always+1. Prayers and love to my friend Denise, I love you!!! Sending comforting thoughts to all his family, friends and students.

Every single memory I've had with Uncle Scotty has been noteworthy. He was constantly making us laugh...from going out to eat and pretending he knew everyone walking in the door "Hi Joanne! Joanne Joanne hi! Oh...sorry you look like someone I used to know" to zipping around Largo Central Park at 50 mph on his scooter. Uncle Scotty, I will miss you so so much. I never ever questioned how much you cared (and worried) about me. I will miss you all the time, but especially when we're having family get togethers and you're not there sitting at the breakfast nook table making salads, singing, or playing funny Christmas games. I find solace in knowing you're at peace. No more dialysis. No more medication. No more hospital visits. Just peace. I have no question you'll be watching over all of us, especially you're "beautiful bride" Aunt Neecey. Please help her get through this very very hard time. You weren't wrong, she's pretty awesome, and she needs you right now. I love you. Forever and ever.

I have so many memories. My girlfriend Debbie Andoff was over and we used to play ball in the street. She got Scotty in the head real good with the bat and we both cried for awhile. Scotty too. We were pretty young and every thing turned out ok, I love you dearly Mr. Scott Roach. Enjoy heaven, not a place better to be,
