We just heard about George's passing. We are so sorry. I met George in the early 70's when we both worked for Cloth World. He was a no nonsense manager that always managed the best store in the chain. Sharon and I began to socialize with George & Barb and became their close friends, a time that we will cherish. George and I enjoyed pulling pranks on each other, some of them very elaborate but all in fun. George, Barb, Sharon and I vacationed together in the British & US Virgin Islands five incredible times. Sharon and I will never forget the great time we had. We drifted apart when I took a job in the Charlotte, NC area and lost touch. I followed George's life through our financial advisor Rogers Quimby, for the remainder of his time here with us. We will miss his bark, but know in his heart he was a sweetheart.
