My path crossed with Adele over her beautiful ragdoll kitten which she gave to me many years ago. She was present and supported as he was shown to his championship. Over these years we have developed such a special bond of kindred spirits. How blessed I was to have this outstanding woman pass through my life. Her words of wisdom and kindness will always be with me. My arms go around each of her family members at this time as they grieve her loss. She will forever remain with you in your hearts and memories.

We know the many years of faith you shared with your beautiful wife will help provide some comfort and assurance that this is but a temporary parting, knowing you will be reunited again. May God ease the sorrow your family is feeling until that day comes.
