Gabrielle Ann Stein

FEB 26, 1988 - APR 21, 2016

Gabrielle Ann Stein, our "Gaber", our "Sidder", our "Munchkin Dunchkin", "Auntie", blessed us with her grace for 28 wonderful years. It is the worst pain to announce that our Gaber passed away on April 21, 2016.

Born in Clearwater, Florida on February 26, 1988, she is survived by her father Stephen Stein, mother Teresa Lothridge, sisters Chantel Lincoln and Janelle Stein, brother Stephen Stein, brother-in-law Jeremy Lincoln and partner, Harley Flores. She made a beautiful home for herself in St. Petersburg Florida.

Gabrielle, we love you so much. You gave a part of you to each of us that can never be replaced. You always knew how to cheer us up, even put a smile on our face on our worst day. You lit up a room whenever you walked in. Gaber, you will be extremely missed.

Come celebrate her life with us on Friday, April 29, 2016 at Moss Feaster Funeral Home, 1320 Main St. Dunedin, FL 34698 from 3-6 PM.

Gabrielle Ann Stein (Munckin, Sidder Bidder, Gaber, Auntie) we will miss you and remember you forever. Dance in Heaven. Our love is your love.

There's another day that goes bad and I don't like how much change my life and my life is so much better because of you. You taught me how to trust people how to love people and show me the whole world isn't that bad because the people like you in it I miss you, Gabby. I miss you more and more every day but someday I will see you in heaven and I can't wait. Love you, Gabby. Love you so much.

It's been nine years since you left to serve to go home to heaven I think about you every day if there's not one day you don't cross my mind I miss you more than life itself and I know you're happy in heaven. I loved you and I still love you today. I will always remember you and you always have a special place in my heart And someday I would be in heaven with you and tell then just remember I love you always have and always smell. Thank you for everything.Thomas

Thinking about you today and how much I miss you. Wish you were here to see the kids. Meet Sophia. You would have been obsessed with her. I just wish I could talk to you.... Hug you. Hear your voice. Laugh with you. I miss our laughs and jokes. Kiersten died too so now i have no best friend. I'm sure you two are together though which makes me happy. I wish I could dream of you more. Everytime me and the kids see a butterfly we say hiiiiii aunt Gabi.. and when we have balloons for whatever reason we always send them up to you. I love you Gabrielle and miss you so much.

When we lose someone we love, it seems that time stands still. What moves through us is a silence; a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch. We may not understand why, but little by little we begin to remember, not just that they died, but that they lived, and that their life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. "May the peace of God that surpasses all understanding" comfort and strengthen you. (Philippians 4:7)

I am so sad right now knowing that you are no longer on this earth. Even though our friendship was more through work then in a social setting, you always managed to make me smile. You were such a fun, loving, beautiful, and charismatic soul. I was going through my phone from the last text you sent me, and you were so happy to have your license back, and living life again. I wish you would have reached out, and I am sorry I was not there to try and help you. I have not started crying until now. You will always be missed, and you are deeply loved by many. Rest in peace Gabby. Love you always Erin.
