Joseph R. Huppman

MAR 7, 1929 - MAY 16, 2016

Joseph Robert Huppman, age 87, passed peacefully on May 16 at Morton Plant Hospital in Clearwater after a sudden illness. Services will be held at Our Lady of Lourdes in Dunedin on Thursday May 19, at 12:30.

Joe is survived by his wife, Joan Zajac Huppman, and one sister, Ruth Clough of N. Syracuse NY. The couple has five children: Ann Marie Anthony and husband Rick Schneegold of Durham NC, Joseph Huppman and wife Virginia of Syracuse NY, John Huppman and wife Ellen of Herndon VA, Patricia Huppman of New Port Richey FL, and Carl Huppman and wife Christina of Camillus NY. There are 13 devoted grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Born in Bridgeport CT, Joe spent most of his life in Syracuse NY and retired to Clearwater FL. He was a communicant of Sacred Heart Church where he was lector for many years, and active as a Boy Scout leader. He served in the US Navy during the Korean conflict, and worked for the Crouse Hinds Company for over 40 years. Joe and his wife had a camp on the St Lawrence River and enjoyed summers there for many years. He enjoyed bowling, fishing, golf, shuffleboard, and playing cards, but will most be remembered for his treasured wood carvings, with nearly 500 works to his credit.

This beloved husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather, friend and involved and dedicated member of his communities, will truly be missed by all of the lives he has touched.

Joan, Patty, Ann and the entire Huppman family, our love and prayers are with you all. Joseph, aka Monsignor, was a true gentleman. He took pride in everything he did, while giving 100% all the time. When the time came to give up the many things he loved, he did it with dignity and pride. Knowing that he no longer could give 100% In death, he went into the Lords Kingdom again with dignity. Joseph will never be forgotten in our hearts and prayers. His contributions to this community cannot be duplicated. His everlasting love for his wife, children and grandchildren will go on forever. Joseph we love you and will miss you. Thank you for letting us be a part of your life. In closing, I say, "Sir Permission", and he would respond, "Permission granted". RIP, Love, Michael & Sue Maugere

I cherish the memories of playing cribbage with Joe up at the camp on the St. Lawrence. He was a gracious winner, because he had a lot of practice at it. I never beat him once. I sure miss those games. Amy

My godfather took me camping and I sat at the picnic table waiting for someone to fill my plate. The next day Uncle Joe called me to the table and said, "The quick and the hungry sit at this table. Fill your plate before I call the others." A good lesson to learn. Thanks. With love, Kathleen

Kate, correction: the quick OR the hungry. Meaning if you weren't quick, you were hungry! A lesson that one of five learns very fast. Thank you for sharing such a sweet memory.
