Freda Fay radiated peacefulness and love from the day she entered my home with her daughter, Diane. We shared stories of our lives and beliefs, and of course her grief after just losing Denise, and Nancy earlier. I know she loved all of her family unconditionally just as her true Father Embraces her now.Love, a grateful friend, Nancy

Faye was a part of a lot of lives here in Ellijay, and she will be missed as she has been missed since she left Ellijay. I know that our Father is welcoming her right now and What a blessing she will be in Heaven because of the Joy she shared here and the Love she gave to others. That's what heaven is all about !!Love you FayeJean Crank

Faye was a part of our lives since we were born. A positive influence to us. May she rest in peace and be with those she loved that have gone before her. May God bless her family that are going through a very sad time. Love you and thinking of you and keeping all of you in my prayers. Know she lives on in each of you. Love, Nancy McCabe

Fay, as a young child you entered my life, then became my Step-Mother. You made me feel loved and we shared a special bond, a closeness. In the later years miles separated us but not our hearts. I will forever feel greatfull for sharing my life with yours. I truly mean it when I say, rest in peace. You will be missed, but know you are here in spirit. I love you, your Karen
