I worked for John Sr and his company for 28 yrs. Was also his friend for 49 yrs. When I moved to FL in 1966, he found the house for me and my family and, sight unseen, moved into it in Nov. 1966. In 1983, he called me and asked me to work for him and that was the best thing I ever did. He was a wonderful friend and boss and I will miss him. I saw him for the last time a week before he died.

John was a wonderful man. A good friend and businessman. I first met him when his company did the plumbing work for our then new home being built by Ray Duffy. I have great, fond memories of John, his Son and of Candy. David F. Kern, J.D., Attorney at Law, RetiredOldsmardfk4965@gmail.com
