Lloyd(Cotton)Smith

FEB 24, 1923 - SEP 30, 2016

S MITH, Lloyd B (Cotton) 93 of Largo passed away peacefully on September 30, 2016. He was born in Dunlow, West Virginia on February, 24, 1923. He graduated Ceredo High School of West Virginia in 1942 and entered the Army During WWII. Lloyd fought bravely during one of the most costly battles of WWII, landing on Omaha beach during the Normandy invasion as part of the F359th Company of engineers. Following the war he worked as a brakeman for Norfolk and Western Railroad. Then he moved to Florida in 1961 with the love of his life, Lois and worked for the Pinellas County School district. He was a member of Lakeview Baptist Church and the American Legion post 275 of Dunedin. Lloyd enjoyed hunting, fishing and his yearly trip to West Virginia.

He is predeceased by his wife of 53 years, Lois ; mother and father, Lewis and Elizabeth Smith; brothers, Raymond, Lawrence, Lewis; sisters, Carrie, Martha, Alma and Patty. Survivors include daughters, Lynn(Edward), and Lisa(Dennis); grandchildren, Amanda(Josh) and Cliff; great grandchildren, Jackson, Brayden, Jace; many nieces and nephews, and his close friend Joe Acotto.

He use to sit behind me at Lakeview Baptist Church. What a wonderful man he was, his daughter and son in law sat with him. Always had a smile on his face. Prayers for the entire family. Wish I could be there today, but have to be at the school to find out about Sierras scholarship. God Bless all of you. RIP Lloyd so many will miss you. Diana Smith, Dunedin, Florida

Cotton has been a part of my life since I was 12 years old when they first got married. Later when I was still single and lived upstairs in their rental house, he would check on me as to what time I came home from a date if I was late he would say "your ole man would kill him if something happened to me." He always gave me a rough time but he loved me and I loved him. He will be missed by all of the family. May God bless his sweet girls and their family during his home going. See you in Heaven Cotton.Carol & Reid
