Jamie Underwood lit a candle in honor of Alison.

Please know you are all in our thoughts. We understand loss but, we know how it feels to suffer loss. We loved and respected your sweet father. Lillian had such a special attachment to him. She grew to love him as she got to know him through my Mother and Father. (Dottie and jim Underwood) She was just devastated that she would not be able to see him one more time. After bringing Mother and Dad back to Tennessee: when we would return to clearwater for a visit, we would always track him down on Sunday mornings to have a visit with him. We last spoke with him the Sunday morning before he was to have his 90th birthday party with all the family. He taught my mother's Sunday school class for several years and he was my father's dear friend. We send our love to all the family. Jamie Underwood Lillian Iranioour
