It was a beautiful gathering of 4 generations of family last night that I appreciate the warm welcome to be a part. Thank you very much. Laureen was there in Spirit in the stories that were told the unconditional love that was projected in their thought, humor, and reflection of memories. These things will never be taken away from them or me, and are benchmarks of who she was and how we all are stronger and better equipped for the challenges we have with more understanding. That it is not the challenges you meet head on, it is how we get through them and after that matter. I saw a wonderfully loving family that has all participated in every way this understanding that Jesus has recruited her to watch over them every day, with a powerful means to direct to protect and show His Love. So when you see that finger pointing and waving all around just remember it's just Laureen and Jesus's Love saying: "Just mover aside, we've got this and they really do." Lori Battaglia Friend

Laureen I love you. You were the greatest closest friend I ever had. You were my bad influence, you were my good influence, we laughed until we cried. I was your maid of honor when you married Frank, the love of your life. My world is darker without you in it. I wish I had known how sick you were I would have been there. I will never have another best friend like you. You were as close to a sister as I've ever had. Thank good I have our memories to look back on and laugh with you again. I will see you again soon. I love you my sweet friend and I'm lost without you. I wish I could have been there for you when I should have been, I will never forgive myself for that. ❤️
