Our deepest sympathy is with Don's family at this time. Don was a good neighbor to us. Every now and again his dog would sneak out to come visit our dogs and we would laugh. And he was always there to lend us a hand with the boat when needed. He will be missed.

Mr. Don, you were the wonderful light of so much of my life. Drinking Woodford reserve behind the cabin, chasing puppies, and lots of laughing. Hope you're happy and hanging with Jackie girl. Love you always.

Don I am so sorry you went so soon..I know you and I had it "all together"..I wasn't there through your illness, but I have been there with you for 64 years...We share a father and I loved him..and I have loved you since the day you were born. I was 7 years old then...and we have loved each other all those years...RIP my special brother
