I knew Juana as the mother of two of my close friends since high school, her two daughters Gisselle and Monica. I would come over from time to time to their house, and she would treat me as if I were a member of the family. I remember even having a meal or two over there as well as watching movies and seeing Grouchy. She was always hospitable and easy to talk to. For a while I knew her as "Cookie" but I had the spelling all wrong after doing a little research lol. But she was sweet and a good and nice person. My belief is that she is either in heaven as we speak or on her way there, and she has no pain. Prayers for her and her family who have been and continue to be my friends. May they find strength and healing as the days pass and remember good times and memories. God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit will be with you.
