Frank E. Wonderlin

MAY 9, 1924 - AUG 12, 2017

Frank E. Wonderlin passed away under the care of Suncoast Hospice on Saturday August 12th, 2017 at the age of 93. Frank was born May 9th, 1924, in Camden, NJ. He was predeceased by his parents Jack and Alice Wonderlin, and his wife Jean Wonderlin.

Frank served in the United States Army Air Corps in World War II in Italy. Upon returning home he became an apprentice watchmaker for JD Caldwell. He later opened his own jewelry store in New Jersey, Wonderlin's Pitman Jewelry Shop. He retired to Venice, FL, and was an active member of the Jacaranda Country Club. At his passing, he was a resident of Brookdale Beckett Lake in Clearwater.

He is survived by his daughters, Christine Oberst (John) and Carol Hudson (Ralph), and two granddaughters, Robin Hudson and Emmy Oberst.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in his memory to Suncoast Hospice (<https://suncoasthospice.org>).
