I still can't believe my sweet, kind, quiet nephew Mitchell is gone from this earth. So, so sorry your young life had to end so tragically. So sorry we won't get to see your sweet smiling face and those beautiful brown eyes again. Mitchell was a man with a heart of gold-never saying a harsh word to anyone. I always thought of him as a big, soft loveable teddy bear. He was always kind. Maybe the only problem he had was he was too kind that he let people walk on him but that is something that they will have to carry. I am sorry you will not be here to see your boys grow up to be even half the man you were. I am sorry you won't be here to hug your momma and aunts. I know you are in heaven watching over those you love, Mitchell. We love you and we will miss you every day.

We will miss you, sweet nephew. Jason and Zach thought of you like a brother. So many great memories. You always called me Jobe, and nobody else ever did. I will cherish those sweet memories always, until we meet again. I know your Granny met you on the other side. I know you are at peace now.

I'm still in disbelief that my sweet nephew is gone. My memories of Mitchell will get me through his passing. I know that he was a good man, a devoted father, and a caring son to his mom. I loved having him stay with me as a boy. He used to take naps snuggled right beside my husband- always the sweetest thing! Blessed to have been a part of his life- including school events, boy scout events, and his graduation. He was a mighty proud man the day his son was born. The last time that I saw Mitchell, he was smiling his big beautiful smile- that's how I will remember him. Greatly loved by all of us.
