Maryann Jean Lucania

OCT 26, 1942 - OCT 23, 2017

Maryann J Lucania was born on October 26, 1942 in Bayonne New Jersey to parents Charles and Carmela Lucania. Maryann attended College of NJ receiving her BA in Education and Montclair University where she completed her MA in Education. Maryann was a Business Teacher at Elizabeth High School, Elizabeth NJ, for over 40 years. She moved to the Tampa area of Florida in 2015 to be close to her family and sunny weather. Maryann stayed very involved in social groups being part of The Golden Ages in her hometown of Bayonne and Retired Teachers Association of NJ. She was also a member of the Montclair University Alumni Association. Maryann was strong in her Catholic faith and was a member of Incarnation Catholic Church of Tampa. When not keeping busy with her groups she enjoyed needlepoint, arts and crafts, family and traveling.

Maryann went home to the Lord on October, 23, 2017. She is predeceased by her parents Charles and Carmela (nee Mattaliano). Survivors include her brother, Charles and sister-in-law Teresa (nee Donovan); nephews, James and his wife Megan, Bryan, and Kevin and his wife Andrea; great niece, Charlotte; great nephew, Henry. A memorial service will be planned at a later date at Migliaccio Funeral Home in Bayonne New Jersey at <http://www.migliacciofuneralhome.com/>. The family ask that in lieu of flowers please make donations to the Salesian Sisters of North Haledon, NJ or visit the website at

Dear Charlie and Terry & Children, So very, very saddened to hear of the passing of your lovely, kind Sister, Maryann. So happy she did get to see your Family grow and enjoy those precious little ones. I know the love she shared with your Family brought her so much happiness and I hope it brings you a measure of comfort during this trying time. God Bless. Love & Prayers, Ed & Judy & Family.
