Hello John, Paul and Thomas, I was very sorry to hear about your dad. Though many years ago now, our families were very entwined for a long time beginning when we were all very young. I have many fond memories of so many different things. Christmas was never complete without a visit to the Yarbrough house for some egg nog and treats. I regret very much I can't come down to give you all a hug personally but I have an obligation I can't escape from. I will be there in spirit and have you and your families in my heart now and always. Love, Dave Dennard P.S. I'm sure my dad was one of the first to greet him and welcome him to the great Swamp in the Sky.

My condolences to the family. I am so glad that Dad and I were able to be there last week. I know your Dad knew his brother was there for those last moments. God is good. Our prayers are with you all during this time of remembrance. Paul, John and Thomas you had a good role model in a father and his legacy lives on thru you all. God bless you all. Ricky

Orin said many year ago at my Father in laws funeral that he was just a little higher up on the fifty yard line at the gators game. Now he and Melvin Thom can continue to cheer on the team together. Rest In Peace. Foever a GATOR!
