Nancy Nardi

MAY 18, 1927 - DEC 3, 2017

Nancy Nardi was born May 18, 1927 in Pittsburgh, PA and passed away December 3, 2017. She enjoyed an active and wonderful life in Pittsburgh where she worked for a short time as a registered nurse and raised her family before moving to Clearwater in 1982. She is predeceased by her husband of 52 years, Peter C. Nardi. Surviving her are her children, Michel Nardi, (husband Dr. William Strupp) and her son Perry Nardi, (wife Mary) along with 4 grandchildren Bill Strupp, Meg Lokey, David Strupp, and Mariel Nardi, 5 great-grandchildren, and her dog, Tino, all of whom she loved dearly. Nancy was a woman who had a modern outlook on life and of the people who surrounded her. She was intellectually curious and driven to take on new challenges like teaching herself to play duplicate bridge at age 80 on the Internet. She loved staying abreast of current events, listening to country music and opera, and playing bridge with her friends, many of whom became her adopted family. Nancy was also grounded in her traditions. She was an exquisite hostess and a fabulous cook and seamstress. She was extremely proud of her Italian heritage and her nursing background. Those of us who loved her will cherish the memories of her quick wit, her sense of style (“It’s better to look good than feel good”) and her fierce sense of loyalty. A Graveside Service will be held on Friday, December 15, 2017 at 10:45 AM at Bay Pines National Cemetery, St. Petersburg. In lieu of flowers, please consider donations to the Clearwater Free Clinic or a charity of your choice. To post a tribute or condolence, please visit www.mossfeasterclearwater.com

Dear Michel and Dr. Strupp, I was so sorry to read that Nancy had passed away. Every Christmas, as I take out my cookie tin, I think about you and Nancy. She would bake me the best cookies very Christmas. She always kept me on my toes with her envelop of bills. May God bless her and help you get through this difficult time. I think of you often. Love to both of you, Barbara

Dear Michel & Bill, We are so sorry for the loss of your mom, Nancy. It seems we have heard about Nancy since we first met. I remember meeting her for the first time at your condo when she was taking her puppy out. She always seemed so happy to meet or see your friends. She had a great smile! And to think back about how you & Bill met through your mom. You were always there for her; and if you had to be away, Bill was always there, taking her out on the boat or dinner. We hate to see our parents get older; they were all once young, healthy & having a great time. You were there for her all the time. May she Rest In Peace & one day you will be reunited with her in heaven again. Love, Patty & Bill
