Matt and I (Jen Yeater) reconnected many years after high school through fb. Although those were the days and we all had so much fun in our Central days, I cannot express how very happy it made me to see how happy and in love Matt was with Jen, precious children and life! His family was his light! He kept his friends updated on fb posts and he was always smiling! Best Smile! Thinking of Matt's friends and family and praying for strength and peace in his forever memory! May our prayers carry Jen, children and family through this time.

Matt and I would watch the Steelers games together. I'm from Cleveland. I hate the Steelers but he was my friend I watched then because I enjoyed his passion for his team.

To see Matt's face was to see that smile. There was no separating the two. To the entire Cain Family; there are just no words. My heart is truly breaking for all of you. Greyson and Evangeline were so lucky to have him as their father. I will miss seeing him with Jen pushing Evangeline's pink stroller-bike when picking up Evangeline from my house. Please know that I am here for you. Like I said to you Jen, just open up the sliding glass doors and yell. I'll hear you. I will keep all of you in my thoughts and prayers for a long time during these very trying times. May God Bless all of you and may you Matt Rest In Peace. Sincerely, Cathy Bishop
