Bernard Patrick McArdle III

FEB 27, 1956 - JAN 14, 2018

M CARDLE, Bernard Patrick III, 61, of Clearwater, FL passed away on January 14, 2018.

Bernard graduated from Clearwater High school. He lived in Houston for 10 years before moving back to Clearwater. Bernard started a business building custom motorcycles before an accident left him a quadriplegic eighteen and a half years ago. His wife cared for him until his recent passing. He loved going to the movies and spending time with his family, especially his granddaughters.

Bernard is preceded in death by his father, Bernard McArdle Jr. and his brother, Brian McArdle. He is survived by his loving wife of 42 years, Darlene McArdle; his son, Bernard Patrick McArdle IV; his daughter and son-in-law, Dawn McArdle Hernandez and Dennis Hernandez; his granddaughters, Abigail and Lily Hernandez; his mother and step-father, Patricia and Smitty Barlowe; and his brothers, Pete McArdle and Mike McArdle.

Hello Darlene, You don't know me, but I knew Rip before you guys met. I'm so sorry for you and your families loss. Rip was a good, kind, and loving man. I am so glad he had you in his life after his accident. You must be a wonderful person to have stayed by his side all those years! My prayers are with you and your family! I wish you peace and happiness in your future! Jeanette

Darlene Mcardle lit a candle in honor of Bernard.

We want to thank our family and friends for all their thoughts and prayers. The gathering yesterday was a special time remembering Rip and what he means to us. He is now in a better place with those who have gone before him. Love always and forever. Sincerely, Darlene, Patrick and Dawn.
