I remember Mr Evans all the way back to the 60's, when he had his beauty salon next to the Carib Theater on Gulf to Bay in Clearwater . He was a truly gifted hair stylist! Now his daughter Lisa is my hair stylist, at Fantastic Sams in Seminole. And she certainly inherited his talent! I am so sorry for your loss Lisa. I know your father is still looking down on you with love and hugs.In friendship,

Phillips M. Evans... Or as I knew him... Grandpa... I knew him at the age of 6 but he knew me way before, since I came to this world. And took me under his wings, he feed me so I could go and walk into a good future and because of his great values and love he cared about me even though I was not his responsibility. My memories with him are few. But powerful. Because of the memories I have of him will take me through the correct path for the rest of my life. If he wanted he could just live his life without worrying about other... Just worried about himself... But his BIG COLOSAL LOVE make him the loving and great person we all know. He grant me the opportunity to live, to grow, to become a person of good and love. I promise to him and to myself that im going to follow the same path that he did. Because I dont need to, but is the correct way and the way to transmit his spirit of love and goodwill to others. Love you grandpa and thank you for all you have done and all the help you gave me, you gave to others, and for the others to come that will know your love.
