We met in Publix after mass at St. Brendan. We shared memories of Chicago and some of the people we knew there. We have been wonderful friends for some time and shared a lot together. Our last talk I will always remember as you did sound so good. I will miss our conversations but we know you are with our God and happy in his care. You had such a perfect and wonderful wife and what a lucky man you were. Nancy is the best. Rest in peace dearest friend. We all love you. Connie and Lee
