I have fond memories of Joe and am very grateful for his friendship and support in the 1970s. Joe was the first plumber I worked with when my young company was building mall stores in the various area shopping malls. Joe helped me get other subs to work with me. I was an unknown contractor and Joe had faith and trust in me. The feeling was mutual. A true gentleman with a great sense of humor. May his memory be a blessing for your family.
