I met Amy while volunteering in the CCC bookstore. I quickly took a liking to her. Amy was kind and had a wonderful sense of humor. She appeared tough on the outside, but once she let you into her heart, you knew the depth of her caring and kindness. She always tried to do the right thing for the parents and students at CCC. She touched the lives of so many families and will continue to be greatly missed. Nick, she talked about you all the time and was very proud of you. You and your family will remain in our hearts and prayers.
