Hello, I'm sorry to hear this gentleman has passed. I didn't know him. But I have a story. Sometime around 2001 or 2002 I had started a new pool cleaning route. I was trying to find my way around the area and drove down this road into this beautiful area. To my surprise here was this magical train store. When I went inside it was majestic. I moved to Michigan at the end of the Summer in 2002 and never got to go back. Over the years I thought maybe it was a dream because I couldn't find any information about it and I couldn't remember exactly where it was. Somehow the other day I was thinking about it and looked it up and the internet blessed me with an article about the Whistle Stop train store in an orchard in Palm Harbor. Then further research brought to this notice of Mr. Sever passing away. Like I have already said, I didn't know him and yet he still had a magical impact on me. I do wish he and his train store were still here. But it's a very fond memory I hope I never forget. Godspeed sir and thoughts to your family. I hope this memory brings someone a smile. Best regards, Richard W. Elliott IV

Dear Buddy, Judy and Sandra: Sorry I could not be there today, as planned, but Juanita admitted herself to Morton Poland about midnight last night. I had to go see what was up with her. She has a UTI and has been sick for eight days. We could not get her to doctor. So sorry to hear about Joe. Will always have fond memories of Joe and his Whistle Stop. He made quite a name for himself. Claude and Sue McMullen
