I will always remember how sweet, considerate, and very kind Tía Helga was. Something I've often looked back on, a memory I will always hold dear, were the times when my brother and I would visit, she always made it a point to send us off with her delicious peanut butter and marshmallow sandwiches for our trip back home. To some it may not seem like much, but even now in my adulthood, I still remember how special the gesture alone made me feel. May the thought of her warm smile and infectious laugh that brightened our lives, now illuminating the kingdom of heaven, be of comfort.
