My Aunt Dixie was a bright spot in my life. She showed me kindness and love in a way that I so rarely felt in my family. She was the inspiration that taught me to love and look to God for hope and perseverance. Her bright spot will be missed in this world but I know she is shining her light down upon us in love still. I am sure her and Uncle George are happily united and laughing together again. Their laughter could lift the darkest hour of any situation. I will miss you both. Love you!
