I knew Audrey from our childhood, we were both born in 1939, and were playmates for the first 8 years of our life. She was always a lovely person and people just gravitated to her. I have only seen her a few times in the last 70 years but it always felt as though there was no gap. And we could pick up where we left off she is a great loss to all of us.

My memory of my darling Aunty Audrey is when she brought a 'newborn' Ashley home. I was probably about 4 years old but I remember it vividly. The thrill of having a newborn baby to love and play with and Aunty Audrey and Uncle Bern making sure I didn't feel pushed out will always stay with me. Such a kind loving lady, always laughing and giving. Her daughters are the same. A lifetime of memories will be cherished forever ❤️
