Sandy Steyer passed Sunday, December 9, 2018. She was 81 years young. She resided in Palm Harbor, Florida. Sandy was baptized Methodist. She was a member of East Lake Methodist Church since 1985.

Sandy was married to Robert Sylvester Steyer.

They celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary in November.

Sylvester is Robert's middle name, so ... they became known as "Tweety and Sylvester".

Their song was You, You, You. It is sung by The Ames Brothers.

Sandy is survived by her beloved husband, Robert Sylvester Steyer;

Three Children,

Robert James Steyer, Sherry Mae Dwinell and Suzan Lynne Steyer;

Grandchildren,

Chad Andrew Steyer, Monica Mae Dwinell and John David Dwinell.

We can't forget her little doggie Daisy May, whom mom taught to count her treats.

Sandy was a professional retailer for many years and loved her profession because it gave her the opportunity to meet new people that she could talk, talk, then talk some more.

There were no strangers to her.

Sandy loved hobbies including being an avid fan and recliner coach of The Rays ,

The

Tampa Bay Lightning, and the number one fan of the Pittsburgh Steelers. She loved Bowling, Crocheting, sitting in her comfy chair reading her Danielle Steel books and enjoying a few sweets.

Sandy looked forward to the holidays so she could bake her goodies. She especially loved baking her fruit cakes that she shared with family and friends. Her number one hobby was SHOPPING for Bling bling.

I have been a family friend for more than 40 years and I considered Sandy May Steyer to be my 2nd mother. I will miss telling her "just like a bad penny, I keep turning up" and I could count on her saying "you're a bad penny, alright" and give me her big smile with a hug and a kiss. I never left her without telling her "I love you". I will miss that smile, tweet. I love you.
