Denise Maloney Pushkin

JUL 9, 1952 - MAR 6, 2019

Pushkin, Denise Maloney (Denne), 66, of Dunedin, FL, passed away on March 6, 2019. Denne was born on July 9, 1952 in Methuen, Massachusetts to Frank and Barbara Maloney (nee' Kiley) who have preceded her in death. Denne is survived by her loving husband, Richard J. Pushkin, Sr.; 2 sisters, Nancy Cranney (Milton) and Kerry Cutrumbes (John); a brother William Maloney; step-children, Richard J. Pushkin Jr. (Kristin) and Traci S. Sackrey (John); 5 grandchildren, Oliver, Georgia, and Benjamin Sackrey and Campbell and Kyle Pushkin, her loving nieces and nephews, Matthew, Libby, Maggie and Sarah Cranney, Sean Maloney, Caitlin Pereira, Abby and Peter Cutrumbes.

Denne was an artist and a creative spirit and worked with many talented people over the years. She was a voracious reader, passionate about politics, and had a huge heart for fostering abandoned hopeful pups. Denne enjoyed many summers at the family beach house in Seabrook, New Hampshire surrounded by her family and friends.

The family will be holding a private service at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Denne's "tail wagging spirit" may be made to Dakin Animal Shelter in Leverett, Massachusetts or to Labs4Rescue in Killingworth, Connecticut.

I am so sorry for your loss. Denne and I worked together at Deerfield, but I hadn't seen her for a long time. We recently re-connected on FaceBook, and I loved seeing photos of her dogs. She brightened up any place she happened to be. I am so glad to have known her. Mary Ellen Shaughan

Denne and I worked together in Northampton MA; I loved her for her empathy and smarts—we shared a lot of laughs and some tears. We lost touch when she moved to Florida. My heart goes out to her family. Ellie Cook, Northampton

Judith Coburn lit a candle in honor of Denise .

My heart goes out to the Maloney and Pushkin families. An old Andover friend, Denne left an indelible, bright mark on every soul she touched, her spontaneous expressed train of thought was effortless and delivered in a laidback manner made everyone around her smile, made her a joy to be around, early on. She was inspiringly kind. Sad to hear this news. But Denne's spirit is part of all of us and will not be forgotten.-
