Uncle Jeff, I love you. I am sorry that you were in pain but joyful knowing you no longer are. Your spirit lives on through all of your family, we will always remember your youthful exuberance and easy smile. I rejoice with confidence that you walk the roads of gold with Jesus, Grandpa, Grandma, Rick, Kay and Ken. Sing, laugh and be joyful together...we will do the same down here. Rest In Peace.

Uncle Jeff...you are very loved. This family is a special one. No matter where anyone lived, family was family. What a special time in life I got to have him be the live in uncle as a kid. Uncle Jeff "taught" Eric and I karate. Such fond memories of him. Love you Uncle Jeff. Rest now with Grandma, Grandpa, Kay, Kenny, and Rick.

Jeff was the 7th of 7 children. I remember the day mom brought him home from the hospital. I was a sophomore in High School. He was full of energy and spunk. I remember making him and are brother Greg, Batman and Robin outfits for Halloween. They would run all over the house playing those roles. I soon moved and my parents moved to California with Jeff. My memories then were of short visits. I traveled all over and saw little of him. Jeff had the biggest heart of anyone. A kind and gentle spirit. Though he will never be forgotten and although we are apart his spirit will live on in all those who loved him. If love could have saved you, You would have lived forever. Rest my dear brother, I will always love you..Your sister and forever. Anna Stigall Marcotte

Hello Anna, my condolences to you and your family. I just found out. My wife and I were traveling through Florida, working are way down to the Keys. Was hoping to see my old friend. Hope I'm not bothering you. I meet Jeff after I first got out of the Army in 1982. It was 1983 in Fallbrook CA. He was a good guy and great friend. He turned me on to the band Rush, and I got him into the martial arts. We used to drive around Fallbrook at night listening to Rush and drinking Rum and cokes. Those were great days. He helped me out, when I was going through a break up. Moved to Clearwater Florida, for 6 months. Went through a hurricane with him. I will truly miss him. RIP Jeff. I know he's listening to Rush up there. Love you man!
