I was blessed enough to meet my beautiful Chica in chemotherapy this year. We took right to each other and became instant friends. We didn't have much time with each other, but the times we did share I will cherish forever. She made such an impact on my life. She was an amazing, crazy, beautiful soul. I miss and love you everyday.

I spent many holidays and some special sleepovers at Aunt Jens house. As a little girl, I always felt like she was a movie star...the beautiful blonde hair, always so pretty and that amazing voice that always impacted me. She could say anything and it sounded so regal. I remember watching her adore Courtney with a special love ... I never knew what it was until I had a daughter. She was an amazing wife & mother and I know her impact will carry on and reach many others through her family, friends & the many students she taught! My prayers are with each of you who loved her and will miss her so dearly. May the Lord surround you with His love.

I have nothing but wonderful memories of Jen. We spent 4 years in the same homeroom at MCHS. We had a lot of fun joking and playing pranks on classmates. RIP my friend. Marvin Eades

Jen was such a good friend to my parents, who lived two doors down. My mom loved her so much. I would come to Florida to visit my parents and Jen would always bring over something special that she had cooked and share in a glass of wine with my mom and me. I loved her giant smile and her energy. I appreciated how she watched over my mom, now deceased for a year and a half, so closely. I will miss her smile, her hugs, her vibrant clothes and hats, her love of the beach, her sweet words and love of her husband. I pray that she and mom are having special girl time and wine time in heaven. Kisses and tight hugs, Jen. I love you.
