I am currently a 4th grade teacher in Pasco County who grew up in Clearwater FL. As I'm creating a list of "remarkable people" for our February projects on diversity, my memories shift to the summers that I spent with Tom. As I immediately looked him up online to see about reuniting, I am disheartened to learn of his passing. I've bragged about Tom for over decade, and lovingly recall our interactions when I worked with TEAMeffort Missions. Tom studied my expressions each summer day, and was the first to recognize my grumpiness. He was also the first to say 'I love you', especially when I needed it most. While I often tried to communicate by finger spelling every word, I quickly learned that Tom communicated faster and "tuned in" more effectively than any individual withOUT hearing loss. I will miss him dearly, yet forever treasure how he taught me to listen... to hear the heart of every individual, and accept them for simply being God's child. Tom--"I love you from the bottom of my heart." ---Delanna (the "ballerina girl)

Our deepest sympathy and condolences to Mr. Tom's friends and family. We just learned of his passing and our family is heartbroken. Mr. Tom was an amazing teacher to my daughters over the last several years, giving them a love for ASL and a beautiful understand of deaf culture and history. Mr. Tom's sweet demeanor and presence was a blessing to us at a time when our family was transitioning through tragedy - he was a positive male role model to my daughters at time when they needed most. Not seeing him in the classroom will be a significant loss to the families, colleagues, and friends who valued his big smile and warmth.
