CARLEY, Jr., C. David “Dave”

Dave Carley, 91, passed away August 21, 2019 in Clearwater. He was born in Nashville, Tennessee, on March 14, 1928, as the eldest of six children (Tommy, Phillip, Virginia, Burke and Steve) to C. David Carley, Sr. and Natalie Kiernan Carley, all predeceased him. The family moved to Baltimore, Charlotte, Columbia and Charleston settling in Atlanta in 1939 where Dave was raised. Dave lived in Atlanta until 1977 when he moved his family to Clearwater (Belleair), Florida.

Dave was married August 28, 1952 to Katherine “Paddy” Verdery. Besides raising six children Paddy and Dave could be found regularly playing golf, travelling, visiting all 7 continents, and generally enjoying life. Dave is known by friends and family alike as outgoing, personable and with opinions on most topics.

Dave graduated from Marist School, served his country in the U S Army and Reserve during the Korean War including time in Greenland above the Arctic Circle. He is a graduate of the University of Georgia, with advanced degrees from Dartmouth and Emory.

A life-long career in banking was split between two locations. Dave served the First National Bank of Atlanta, rising to level of Sr. Vice President. He was most proud of his oversight of the bank’s construction, opening and operation of all branch locations (dozens) throughout 1960’s and 1970’s. Besides managing the hundreds of associated employees, Dave was particularly proud of his role in the introduction of the first automated teller machines “Tilly” in Atlanta. The “Atlanta” career was complimented by many roles of community service including participation on the Boards of Junior Achievement of Greater Atlanta and Georgia State University Foundation. He was a Kiwanian, and active with United Way and the Chamber of Commerce. Dave was a member of Cherokee Town and Country Club serving as a Board member and ultimately President of the club.

Before and after retirement, he and Paddy were active socially as members of Carlouel Yacht Club, Privateer’s Social Club, Belleair Country Club, a part owner of the First National Bar and a member in good standing of the “505 Club”.
