Darin C. Lohman

JUL 17, 1963 - JAN 4, 2020

Darin Craig Lohman, age 56, passed away peacefully surrounded by loved ones in his home on January 4, 2020. He leaves behind his loving wife of 29 years, Heather Lynn Lohman, and son, Darin Durant Lohman.

He was born on July 17, 1963 in Peoria, Illinois to Threasa Earp and Lester Lohman. He grew up with his father, Le Roy Earp, two sisters, Debra Earp and De Anna Lohman, one brother, Durant (Debbie) Lohman. He graduated Illini Bluffs High School in Glasford, Illinois in 1982.

Darin married Heather Siko on July 26, 1990 in Las Vegas, Nevada, forever securing their love as a royal flush. They started their married life in Peoria, Illinois where they had their only child, Darin. They later gambled on a move to Council Bluffs, Iowa to chase their careers in the casino industry. In 2013, they decided it was 5 o'clock somewhere and ventured to Florida.

Darin had a vivacious personality and always made people around him laugh. His love for Looney Tunes extended so much so that he dared to cross his mother by getting a tattoo of Marvin the Martian. He was a loyal fan of the Chicago Cubs and was happy to see them win a World Series...even though it took him living in a different state for them to start building momentum.

When diagnosed with cancer in 2018, he wrote his own rules, just like the way he lived. He will be remembered as a carefree spirit who had the best one-liners but could always be counted on for a bear hug and sentimental heart.

Darin is survived by his wife and son, as well as his parents, Lee and Threasa Earp, sisters, brother and nieces. He was preceded in death by his biological father and beloved dog, Gossamer.

Darin requested to be cremated. The family will hold a private memorial at a later date. To celebrate his legacy, please raise a Pabst Blue Ribbon, catch a Cubs game, and visit his brick at the corner of Addison and Clark in Chicago.

I worked with Darin for several years in the fun, and often stressful environment of gaming. You could always count on Darin for his expertise, a smile, and his genuine knack for making others feel good about themselves. Very warm hearted man, I feel blessed to have known him. Mike Costello-Omaha
